

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXXVII.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1909.

NO. 76.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Kirby Teater has been appointed Postmaster at Loyd, Garrard county, vice, J. T. Hicks, resigned.

Sheriff Broadbudd arrested Charles Davis in Madison on a warrant from Bell county, charging house-burning.

State Troops are guarding the Somerset jail to prevent the lynching of James Pierce and son, Walker, who killed Taylor Sullivan on election day.

John Rowsey, son of George Rowsey, who was killed near Junction City many years ago, was killed by a falling tree while coon hunting near Parksville.

S. H. Brinton, of Lebanon, and H. T. Gratz, of Louisville, have been in Danville figuring on establishing an automobile line between that place and Junction City and also another line between Danville and Lancaster.

In the Derby trial of fox hounds at Lawrenceburg Jack P. Chinn's Sal was awarded the cup for speed and driving. Sal came first, Mr. Chinn's Lady second and R. H. Crooke's Whit Lewis third. In hunting and trailing Whit Lewis was first, Sal second and Lady third.

In accord with its plan to provide fifty counties with adequate warehouse facilities, the Burley Tobacco and Insurance Company approved conditionsly the purchase of the Bonta Warehouse at Harrodsburg, with a capacity of 1,000,000 pounds, the purchase of two acres of ground at Lawrenceburg and five acres at Mt. Sterling.

Fred Lake, a Mercer county convict, was pardoned and the figure 13 seems to control every important event in his life. He was born on the 13th, was accused of committing an assault on his sister-in-law on the 13th, was arrested on the 13th, tried and convicted on the 13th, sentenced to 13 years in the penitentiary on the 13th, was pardoned on the 13th, and he is the 13th child of his parents. When he was released the money at the penitentiary awaiting for him amounted to $13.13.

County Judge Ford, of Garrard, who was in the city last night, told a Gazette reporter that the statement printed in the Herald in a dispatch from Frankfort that owing to the fact that Auditor James had discovered that he had been drawing money for idiots that were dead, he would try to escape prosecution by not qualifying for a second term to which he was recently elected, is not true. Judge Ford has been out of the State for several days and had no information of the matter until he came to Lexington. He positively contradicted the statement and said that he would qualify as surely as he lived till Jan. 1. Auditor James has done all he can in the matter growing out of the misunderstanding and the judge said that he did not intend to be bluffed by him or anyone else. Judge Ford is a democrat and says no republican shall ever hold the office to which the people elected him.—Lexington Gazette.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. S. M. Logan, of Wilmore, is engaged in a revival at Munfordsville.

The topic for prayer meeting at the Methodist church Thursday night is "Love Greater Than Alms-giving." Bring your Bibles. Pastor.

Rev. J. T. Hoskins, of Elkhorn, preached two excellent sermons at the Baptist church Sunday. The congregation was greatly pleased with him.

The Memphis Conference of the Methodist Church, South, in session at Greenfield, Tenn., accepted the invitation of the Broadway Methodist church to meet in Paducah next year.

Rev. D. M. Walker is conducting an interesting meeting at Mt. Xenia, which will continue through the week if not longer. There have been eight confessions and a general awakening of the church members.

Forced Into Exile.

Wm. Upchurch of Glen Oak, Okla., was an exile from home. Mountain air, he thought, would cure a frightful lung-racking cough that had defied all remedies for two years. After six months he returned, death dogging his steps. "Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery," he writes, "and after taking six bottles I am as well as ever." It saves thousands yearly from desperate lung diseases. Infallible for Coughs and Colds, it dispels Hoarseness and Sore Throat. Cures Grip, Bronchitis, Hemorrhages, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough. 50c and $1, trial bottle free, guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store.

The Deacon—Mr. Skinner, you put a bad quarter in the collection yesterday.

Mr. Skinner—Yes, sir, but you must admit it was a pretty bum sermon, too.

Penny says Hyomei is so pleasant to use. Just breathe it in and cure catarrh by killing the germs. Outfit including inhaler only $1. Money back if it does not cure.

HUSTONVILLE.

Mrs. Belle Floyd, of Mt. Salem, has a severe case of grip. Hudson Bohon is visiting his sister, Mrs. Jeffers, in Louisville.

Bird hunters galore are here to invade the sacred precincts of Casey, Pittsburg, Pa., and even New York have representatives in the crowd.

The Hustonville Hunting and Fishing Club left Monday for their two weeks' outing on the banks of Green river.

There are several invited guests from Danville, Covington and Cincinnati, besides Frank Rohan, of Erlanger, and Charles Cody, of Detroit, Mich.

Miss Lula Mae Bruce, of Danville, is a guest of the Misses Alcorn Mrs. J. W. Hughes, of Frankfort, who has a fine soprano voice, rendered a solo at the morning service at the Christian church in a most impressive manner. She is the guest of her sister, Miss Lula Cochran, at Hotel Weatherford.

Sam Montgomery and Miss Stella Hubbell, the accomplished teacher of McKinney, were married recently. Leo Lintleum, adopted son of the late J. W. Lintleum, and Miss Eliza Brackett were married Nov. 6 by Rev. John Marion and are happily keeping house in the late home of his father. The bride is from Garrard county, where she has many friends.

John Purdon, who manages the loose leaf tobacco warehouse at Moreland, reports having bought half a million pounds at prices at 8 to 14c. The market has not fairly opened yet but it is an unusual sight to see a dozen wagons standing in front of his place waiting to be inspected. Several million pounds will come in from Casey and Russell counties by Jan. 1st.

Engineer Matt Horton, who runs a train between Frankfort and Paris, proved himself a hero last week. Between Georgetown and Frankfort there is a high trestle. As his train approached this trestle Horton discovered that the rear wheels of his engine were off the track and that unless he stopped the train, his engine would go off the bridge. With great courage he reversed his engine and stuck to his post. The fireman jumped, but Horton knowing the safety of the passengers depended upon him, staid with his engine and thus averted a disastrous wreck. Mr. Carnegie could not bestow a medal on a more worthy man than Matt Horton. He is well-known in this section, having married a daughter of Col. Jim McWhorter, of Middleburg, several years ago.

Mr. Bright on Isaac Hubbard's Relic.

The relic of pioneer times shown me by Mr. Isaac Hubbard and in relation to the locality of the finding and time of entering the land on which it was found, I find the following facts from the records of the Lincoln county clerk's office: That on March 21, 1781, Daniel McCormack entered 750 acres of land lying on both sides of the Hanging Fork of Dick's river and adjoining the lands of the settlement of Isaac Shelby and on the old trace from Big Flat Lick on Col. Benjamin Logan to Knob Lick, which was Isaac Shelby's settlement. Isaac Shelby was the first surveyor for the Henderson Land Company (afterwards the Transylvania Land Co.). He surveyed the lands of his settlement as surveyor for the Henderson Land Co. in 1775. Daniel McCormack gave 250 acres of the entry of 750 acres on the West end to William McCormack. That is the tract this cup was found on. I do not think this was used for a drinking cup, but after studying over all the equipment of a Kentucky hunter of that day, I find the gun was indispensable and as they used the old flint lock, he had to have a supply of flints to operate his gun. They could not be carried loose in his shot-pouch so the cup was made to carry the flints and then slipped into a buckskin sack and then into the breast pocket of his hunting shirt. As Capt. Dick, a friendly Indian (Dick's river takes its name from this Indian) remarked on an occasion when he and one of the longhorns were together and a fine, large buck stepped into an open place. Dick saw it first. He had the right of the first shot and he raised his gun. His flint being out of fix it did not strike fire. The white man fired and killed the deer, when Dick said: "Indian's gun no fire, no shoot; white man's gun heap fire, big shoot."

JOHN BRIGHT, SR.

"Health Coffee" is the cleverest imitation of real coffee ever yet made. Dr. Shoop created it from pure parched grains, malt, nuts, etc. Fine in flavor—it made in just one minute. No 20 or 30 minutes tedious boiling. Sample free. Penny's Drug Store.

Hugh McIntosh, the fight promoter, has cabled an offer of a purse of $75,000 for the battle between James J. Jeffries and Jack Johnson. The purse probably is offered with the expectation of holding the fight in the Olympia, London.

NEWS NOTES.

A driving snow storm fell in Northern Nebraska Friday afternoon.

State University defeated Transylvania 77 to 0 at Lexington Saturday.

Tenny, once a great race horse, died at the farm of David Tenny Puisifer in New York.

The head waiter at Delmonico's in New York has just died leaving an estate of $500,000.

Mag. E. W. Hawkins, aged 95 years, the oldest lawyer in Kentucky, died at his home in Newport.

Frank Czolagoz, brother of the anarchist who killed president McKinley, is dead at Aberdeen, Wash.

Archbishop Ryan, of Philadelphia, recently declared that football, as played in America, is barbarous.

Raymond Patterson, for many years head of the Washington bureau of the Chicago Tribune, is dead in Washington city.

Edward Hoff, a farmer, confessed at Indianapolis that he pushed his wife off a bridge. The body was recently found in White river.

Tilden Blanton and Ashford Joseph, who killed Demosthenes Noble in Breathitt county on election day, were granted bail in $5,000 each.

Walker Kennedy, for years editorial writer of the Commercial Appeal, and one of the most widely known newspaper men of the South, died suddenly at Memphis.

By an explosion in the Hagley yard of the Du pont Powder Co., near Wilmington, Del., three men were killed and several injured. Two mills were destroyed.

A wild-eyed suffragette armed with a horse whip attacked Winston Spencer Churchill at Bristol, England, and it was only after a struggle that she was restrained.

The hurricane that swept over Hayti wrought immense damage, the extent of which it is as yet impossible to determine, but up to the present no news has been received of any serious loss of life.

Albert Steenstra, of Grand Rapids, Mich., was found dead in bed at a hotel at Vevay, Ind., with his skull crushed. He died an hour later. Edward Kincaid is in jail charged with the murder.

Explosion and fire, under circumstances identical with those of the Brooklyn comb factory fire of Monday in which nine persons perished, cost the lives of two employees of a comb factory in Manhattan Thursday. Nine persons were injured.

The immense plant of the Union Distilling Company, known as the Edgemont Springs Distillery, at Carthage, a suburb of Cincinnati, was almost destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at between $250,000 and $300,000, fully covered by insurance.

Will James, a Negro who partially confessed to the murder of Miss Annie Pelley at Cairo, Ill., was hanged to the public arch in that city by a mob of 10,000 persons. James' body was riddled by bullets and afterward burned at the scene of the murder.

The Detroit United Railway acceded conditionally to the city's demand of $300 a day for the use of streets upon which franchises are said to have expired Sunday. The company specifies that it waives no rights and that the city waives none as far as an ultimate readjustment is concerned.

Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh has come out with the flat statement that not only will he probe to the bottom the scandal growing out of the frauds committed in the New York custom house by the so-called Sugar Trust and its agents, but he proposes to re-ovate the entire service.

Earl Bullock, the Kansas boy bandit, who one month ago robbed a bank at Eudora and killed a policeman before escaping, returned to the scene of his crime and after shooting the cashier of another bank, secured several hundred dollars and made off. He was hotly pursued and when capture was imminent, shot himself. It is not believed he will recover. A youthful companion was captured.

Thomas Jefferson Hoal, a 17-year-old boy, caused a reign of terror in New Albany, Ind., while attempting to rob the Merchants' National Bank. He shot and instantly killed "Garry" Fawcett, cashier of the constitution, and then probably fatally wounded President J. K. Woodward and a Negro chauffeur. He was captured and narrowly escaped lynching. Hoal now occupies a cell in the Indiana Reformatory.

A Scolded Boy's Shrieks
horrified his grandmother, Mrs. Maria Taylor, of Nebo, Ky., who writes that, when all thought he would die, Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured him. Infallible for Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Corns, Wounds, Bruises. Cures Fever-Sores, Boils, Skin Eruptions, Chilblains, Chapped Hands. Soon relieves Piles. 25c at Penny's Drug Store.

THE ladies of the Christian church at Moreland will give a bazaar in the Hunn & Coffey hall, Nov. 20th at 10:30 A. M. Ices served from six to eight thirty P. M. Admission 25c.

THE "younger set" gave an enjoyable hop at Walton's Opera House Friday evening. It was the first effort of some of the youngsters to "perform" in public and the scene at times was rather amusing.

MESSRS. K. L. TANNER, aged 80, James Gooch, 87, Reuben Williams 85, James Dudderar, 90, and L. B. Nunnelley, 87, voted at McKinney in the general election and all voted democratic. This combined age is 420 years.

ACTING GOV. COX has offered a reward of $100 for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who fed Paris green to Mr. W. G. Cowan's cattle and killed 20 or more of them. Seems to us it is a rather small reward for so serious a crime.

CHANGE OF TIME.—No. 22, the Louisville-bound afternoon passenger, now gets here at 5:45 instead of 5:27; No. 28, the through passenger from Louisville, arrives 18 minutes earlier, or 10:45 A. M.; No. 27, the local passenger from Louisville, arrives 15 minutes earlier, or 10:32 A. M. There is no change in the other trains.

PROF. GALVANI's perilous carriage drive mind-reading test. Watch for his startling and dangerous blind-folded carriage drive this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, starting from the window where subject is sleeping. He will drive a spirited team of horses while he is blind-folded at break-neck speed and locate various articles which will be hidden by your staunch citizens.

THE turkey crop in Southern Kentucky is the largest in years and that festive bird is a drug at 11c.

THERE will be a pie supper at the Goshen church Friday night. Go and help yourself to delicious pleas.

RIFFF & JONES, the McKinney produce dealers, shipped out a car-load of turkeys last week they bought at 12c on foot.

THE Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church will meet at the church at 2:30 Saturday afternoon.

FROM Cummins & Wearen's window Prof. Galvani will make his dangerous blind-folded drive this afternoon. At night at Walton's Opera House.

"DUMMY" OWSLEY, colored, was struck by a freight engine Sunday night and received several scalp wounds. As he was out on the street yesterday morning we presume he is not seriously hurt.

THE Danville foot ball team phoned at the 11th hour that it would not be able to fill its engagement with the High School eleven here Friday afternoon. Fear of defeat no doubt inspired the message.

DON'T forget the bazaar to be given on Saturday, Dec. 11, by the ladies of the Presbyterian church. They will have on sale many home-made novelties for Christmas; Colonial rugs, aprons, and cakes, salads, dressed fowls, etc.

DO those who have charge of the Stanford Graded School grounds think they are appealing to the aesthetic sense of their pupils by keeping those grounds littered with loose papers? It occurs to us that a child may be taught to appreciate the beautiful by example, fully as well as by precept.

THE electric lights were turned on Saturday night and there was general rejoicing in town but a half hour later a belt split and now we are in darkness again as far as the incandescents are concerned. The broken belt came near tearing up things and made a narrow escape for Manager Frank Rout and several of his assistants.

NOTE that the court of appeals says that the "near beer" or other decoctions sold in prohibition territory must not be intoxicating. Lincoln county is in prohibition territory and the man who sells intoxicating drinks is liable to be heavily fined and imprisoned. Better be on the safe side and let the malt stuff alone. A hint to the wise is sufficient.

MRS. W. H. SHANKS gave a delightful dinner Saturday evening in honor of Mrs. Samuel Walton Severance, of Louisville. Covers were laid for a round dozen and all were present and greatly enjoyed the hospitality of the charming hostess. The delicious refreshments were furnished by Benedict, of Louisville. Miss Olivia Baldwin, of Madison, sister of Mrs. Shanks, assisted her in entertaining.

BUSTER BROWN has come and gone, but he is not forgotten. The children gave him a regular ovation and be in turn gave our people a very unique and enjoyable entertainment. Walton's Opera House was crowded Saturday afternoon and the splendid advertisement he gave the Brown shoes, sold by Cummins & Wearen, will make that brand go even faster than it now does. Buster Brown was accompanied by his mother, who made the music, and his famous dog, Tig, who helped in the very creditable performance. The bright little fellow was the guest of Master Lynn Pence during his stay here.

The little Candy Cold Cure Tablets called Preventives, will in a few hours safely check all Colds or LaGrippe. Try them! 48-25c. Sold by Penny's Drug Store.

BOILED DOWN,

All Advertising is an invitation to come and buy.

BUT THERE'S a whole lot of difference in it anyhow.

OUR FALL STOCK is here to show and the buying from it may be an after-thought only if you like our showing. Otherwise we don't want your money.

THOSE $15.00 Suits and those Overcoats and Raincoats --well--they tell their own tale.

W. E. PERKINS,

Crab Orchard, Ky.

To the Tobacco Growers of Boyle and Adjacent Counties.

We have secured the skating rink building for a salesroom for leaf tobacco in the hand and will be ready to begin sales as soon as tobacco is sufficiently cured for market and will be able to offer you as good market as you will find elsewhere at a reasonable cost. We have assurance that buyers representing the largest manufacturers and dealers in the U. S. will be represented in Danville, thus insuring the highest market price to the grower. Call and see us before disposing of your tobacco.
